seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade 2 3 language english abstract this term paper is supposed to deal with how love and sex are depicted in brave new world and 1984 and if there are any similarities between them furthermore we will take a brief look at differences and similarities to love and sex in our society what is the attitude towards marriage these days and what is the role of love in all of that after this we will then hopefully be able to identify what love and sex in dystopian fiction means ever since thomas more's utopia love and sex have been a part of dystopian novels in thomas more's times his depictions were ground breaking women were not allowed to marry until they were 18 in the past this was highly unusual since most women married at the age of around 14 furthermore divorce is forbidden which at this point mirrors the time more lived in this clearly influenced all the following writers of dystopian novels they imagine a world that is negatively silhouetted against their own world and since love is a big part of every society it is also a big part in every dystopian society when looking for the most famous dystopian novels on google two that are immediately suggested are brave new world by aldous huxley and 1984 by george orwell both have one thing in common their rather negative and for us rather unusual attitude towards love relationships and sex aspects of romantic love perceptions on love and marriage is a modest attempt to express my perceptions of romantic love and related themes to love and to be loved are exciting aspects of a person s emotional life the pivotal theme of the book is love romance marriage and those alliances which hamper a harmonious conjugal and family life romantic love is a fascinating passion and an ecstatic experience the very word romance captures our imagination and fills our hearts with exciting feelings the book is not a scientific treatise on love it only encapsulates romantic love with all its appealing themes my effort is to describe the splendid experience called love exclusively through my impressions the book is a product of the year 2020 marred by the covid 19 pandemic and the terrible human exodus during the lockdown of 2020 the unexpected global and national scenario gave ample time and opportunity for reading writing and reflection writing on a subject like romantic love helped overcome the lethargy and the feeling of devastation during the lockdown it has been an exciting creative activity and a marvellous sensation of diversion kabir is a name that has resounded powerfully in the indic imagination for over 500 years but who is kabir and what is it about his vision and his poetry that make him such a vital force an irresistible voice drunk on love argues that kabir is not just one person but an idea that belongs to the people of india who have preserved and nurtured it as a living tradition over an incredible span of time in a flowing conversational style the book captures his life as told through popular legends his poetry which has been quoted and translated extensively and his vision which it explores in depth through key concepts such as jheeni raam guru sahaj shoonya and others an essential introduction to the phenomenon that is kabir drunk on love presents the poet as he is described quoted and loved in popular imagination
